

INTERNATIONAL ONLINE CONFERENCE

29-30 APRIL 2021

PROUDLY SPONSORED BY

THURSDAY 29 APRIL 2021

9.30am – 9.45am	CONNECT THROUGH ZOOM & CONFERENCE INSTRUCTIONS CONFERENCE OPENING University of Waikato/Wintec Taki Turner (Kaumatua) & Neil Quigley (Vice-Chancellor)
9.45am – 10.00am
10.00am – 10.35am	TERTIARY WIL UPDATE (ROVE, UNZ; WIL Global, WACE & IJWIL) Andy Martin, Angela Beaton, Jenny Fleming, Karsten Zegwaard Developing institutional-wide perspectives of WIL Sandy Muller, Karsten Zegwaard and Hayley Ferrier-Kerr
10.35am – 11.00am
11.00am – 11.30am	BREAK
11.30am – 11.55am	Academic-Graduate Dialogue for building trusted work-integrated learning relationships Kim Burley On-campus Collaborations and innovative WIL Practice Suzette Dyer, Heather Lowery-Kappes and Fiona Hurd Female practitioner’s perspectives of WIL in sport management in Aotearoa Sally Rae, Marilyn Waring and Irene Ryan
11.55am – 12.20pm
12.20pm – 12.45pm
12.45pm – 1.30pm	LUNCH BREAK
1.30pm – 2.15pm	KEYNOTE PRESENTATION + DISCUSSION: DEVELOPING AND EVIDENCING STUDENT EMPLOYABILITY THROUGH WIL DENISE JACKSON EDITH COWAN UNIVERSITY
2.15pm – 2.45pm	KRISTINA HOEPNNER, CATALYST
2.45pm – 3.15pm	BREAK
3.15pm – 3.40pm	Mechanical engineering students’ perceptions on key WIL graduate attributes Joseph Thomas, Wendy Fox-Turnbull and Karsten Zegwaard Graduate mechanical engineering perceptions on the value of WIL Joseph Thomas, Karsten Zegwaard and Wendy Fox-Turnbull
3.40pm – 4.05pm
4.05pm – 4.15pm	PRESENTATIONS OF WILNZ LIFE MEMBER AND FELLOW AWARDS
4.15pm – 5.00pm	WILNZ AGM

FRIDAY 30 APRIL 2021

9.45am – 10.00am	CONNECT THROUGH ZOOM & CONFERENCE INSTRUCTIONS
10.00am – 10.45am	KEY THEME: UNDERSTANDING AND MANAGING RISK IN WIL: A NZ UNIVERSITIES PERSPECTIVE Kathryn Hay and Jenny Fleming Key theme discussion: WIL risk
10.45am – 11.15am	BREAK
11.15am – 11.40am	Enabling engineering student learning through the use of WIL projects within a COVID-19 context: Learning success and challenges Peter Kovalsky and Karsten Zegwaard
11.40am – 12.05pm	Facilitating ICT WIL Opportunities with a Māori Iwi: Lessons learnt Alvin Yeo, Danny Paruru and Annika Hinze
12.05pm – 12.30pm	Developing soft skills to produce work-ready international graduate diploma students in engineering: A comparative study Mohammad Al-Rawi, Praneel Chand, Jai Khanna and Sarla Kumari
12.30pm – 1.30pm	LUNCH BREAK
1.30pm – 1.50pm	WIL: Shaping employability skills for the future Diana Ayling, Denisa Hebblethwaite and Nick Kearns
1.50pm – 2.10pm	When things don't go well: Challenging experiences encountered by hospitality students during internships. Renuka Narayan and Jenny Fleming
2.10pm – 2.30pm	Wash, soak, rinse, spin: Adaptivity and evolution in a WIL programme Claire Timpany, Nicholas Vanderschantz and Emmanuel Turner
2.30pm – 2.50pm	Using personal development plans to encourage reflective practice, and support employability skills development of students in multidisciplinary, industry co-created projects Elna Fourie
2.50pm – 3.20pm	BREAK
3.20pm – 3.40pm	Introducing simulated WIL in engineering diploma final projects Praneel Chand, Matt Foulkes and Siju Thomas
3.40pm – 4.00pm	Pilot Phase of the degree apprenticeship in engineering with a pathway in asset management James Mackay and Hana Cadzow
4.00pm – 4.20pm	Ngā taonga hunahuna (hidden treasures) identified in WIL Patricia Lucas, Sally Rae, Carolyn Cairncross, Nicola Waite and Robert Hogg
4.20pm – 4.40pm	Positive and negative emotions in WIL Patricia Lucas, Anna Rowe and Theresa Winchester-Seeto
4.40pm - 5.00pm	CONFERENCE CLOSE Future events for WILNZ